Dear Mr. Casey:

I would like to take this opportunity to express my sincere thanks for the support and assistance which the Central Intelligence Agency has been providing to the U.S. Customs Service. The efforts of you and your professional staff, and especially the positive working relationship established with John N. McMahon, are making a vital contribution to the accomplishment of the Customs mission and are deeply appreciated. The warm reception we received during our recent briefings on export control was indicative of the cooperative spirit which enhances activities of mutual concern.

For our part Customs will continue to build upon the close cooperation and fine liaison that has always existed between the CIA and the U.S. Customs Service. I look forward to working with you in the future, particularly to the joint efforts we will be making to prevent the transfer of critical technology to potential adversaries.

Yours faithfully,

William J. Casey

The Honorable
William J. Casey
Director of Central Intelligence
